

I strenuously object to your proposed expansion of station ownership, and request you delay any decision until citizens have had equal access to the process.
Thank you.